Benefit Partners Inc.

OGCA in association with Benefit Partners is pleased to make available to its membership one of the most cost effective solutions for employee benefit plans through the OGCA Collective Purchasing Program for Employee Benefits.

Membership in the Ontario General Contractors Association (OGCA) collective purchasing group insurance program offers a way to benefit from the purchasing power of a very large group.

Benefit Partners has vast experience in the field of designing, managing and implementing collective purchasing plans. Its work for other organizations has resulted in long-term tangible and measurable savings for plan participants. The result is a highly successful collective purchasing plan. With other collective programs Benefit Partners client retention rate has achieved a 97.5% factor over 7 years! These results are testament to the power of collective purchasing and the superior service and long-term cost savings associated with it.

Plan Highlights:

- Reduced administration expenses/rates through the power of collective purchasing
- Extended rate guarantees
- A complete range of plan designs and benefit options
- Each company maintains complete autonomy over plan design and claims experience - therefore your premium reflects what your employees claim and not others
- Increased influence on the insurance companies, as a result of millions of dollars of insurance premium, therefore providing protection against dramatic increases in rates

- On-line benefits administration
- Benefits available for companies with 3+ employees
- Quarterly claims experience review to help predict future premiums and claims trends.
- Paperless claims processing
- Reduced cost for the same level of benefits/service that you are currently enjoying!

Client Testimonials

"Since we have been a member of the Collective Purchasing plan, we have maximized the value of every dollar that we spend on our employee benefits plan, and we have eliminated spending needless money on plan administration."

HR-Manager

"In addition to the savings that we have been able to realize by joining another successful collective purchasing plan, we have also greatly benefited from the proactive and useful consulting services that Benefits Partners provides. We are now able to accurately plan and budget for the future."

Biddingo.com

The OGCA is pleased to announce that it has signed a Memorandum of Understanding with Biddingo.

Many OGCA members use the services of Biddingo to source projects.

Biddingo created and launched BCM to provide a single access portal to construction contracts from Owners including the Ontario Realty Corporation (ORC), hundreds of other Public Sector Organizations, and private companies. The system provides General Contractors with the ability to seamlessly invite subcontractors, trades and suppliers.

Other benefits of registering on Biddingo:

- Find local area bids from smaller, lesser-known owners
- Search for opportunities
- Be identified on the Biddingo website as an OGCA member
- Get daily bid notices
- Information on Vendor Application Forms
- How to meet Ontario Realty Corporation online Prequalification requirements
- Invite subs / suppliers
- Respond to invitations
- View bid lists

We will also provide a series of four webinars in the New Year on the following:

- 1 How to use and register on Biddingo
- 2 Utilizing specific Biddingo services
- 3 ORC forms and vendor listings
- 4 BCM finding new, existing and additional subtrades and suppliers

RESCUE 7 INC.

The Ontario General Contractors association (OGCA) has entered in to a truly "life saving" partnership with Rescue 7 Inc to provide defibrillators and training to OGCA members and their employees.

All firms regardless of size and location will be able to obtain these easy to use "life saving "machines for the office and for project sites. Training of personnel will be available across the Province either through general sessions or provided individually to any OGCA company.

Clive Thurston President of the OGCA says he believes these are an important part of any company's safety initiative and to have the ability to provide these in partnership with Rescues 7 is terrific.
